MBYC Opening Day festivities

We had our first full Opening Day since 2019 this last month! It was amazing to see everyone out and about enjoying themselves, talking, listening to music, watching the boat parade and sailing in the races. Thanks to all the volunteers who set up and took down. And thank you to the committee members who helped pull this off and remember how an Opening Day is supposed to run.

The General Meeting will have taken place right before this masthead so expect an update in next month's issue on what happened.

The biggest topic from the normal board meeting this month was Alcoholic Beverage Control (ABC) Compliance. Beginning July 1st, 2022 we need to be compliant with the new regulation requiring that anyone serving others alcohol needs to be RBS certified. The board listened to legal advice, solicited information from other volunteer yacht clubs, and consulted with the ABC directly. Our bar use policy letter was amended to require this compliance. To help out with fulfilling this requirement see the flyer in this masthead. Get your certification going at <https://abcbiz.abc.ca.gov> (you can find the link in the Member Area of our website). The club will reimburse you up to $15 after you get certified and provide proof of payment to our Treasurer. Help us all stay compliant and safe!

Club Security is another big topic at the board meeting. Our Vice is working on a solution to help increase our club security against theft and unwanted intrusion without disturbing or impinging on club use and activity. We are only concerned with times when there aren't people using the club, i.e. the dead of night. Look forward to a full solution coming shortly.

Lastly, you may have seen the Alias article on our donated sails to Cal Poly. If you haven't. Check it out there or on page xx in the Masthead. There were some interesting creations made by the students and what a great use/re-use of our old and unwanted sails. Thank you all.

May

An interesting event has happened to the Kurmudgeons since our last report. As our dedicated readers will recall, the Kurmudgeons were very concerned about the lack of sequins for our costumes at the MBYC Beauty Pageant. In our exuberance to get the pageant underway, we placed an order in China for a container of sequins, “the container, shipped to the Morro Bay Yacht Club.” Unfortunately, in the translation to Mandarin the comma got displaced, and we ended up with an order that reads, “container ship to the MBYC.”

The Kurmudgeon
Korner

Now a whole container ship is a lot of sequins. At first the Kurmudgeons were somewhat dismayed, but then we realized that we now control 98% of the world’s supply of sequins. Our economist consultants have pointed out the sequins are a luxury item not subject to the normal rules of demand and price, so we can charge anything we want for sequins. We will undoubtedly make a great deal of money out of this situation. We considered alerting the MBYC Investment Committee that they might wish to become involved, but their lack of interest in the recovery of our Nigerian gold coins and our Kuryo-coin IPO, has discouraged us. In any case, there is now a ship loading in Shanghai that will be headed to the MBYC. There may be a few details to work out. A 780 foot container ship on the dock for a couple weeks could be an inconvenience. Our well maintained hoist should easily be able to unload the 978 containers. Other problems could arise, but we Kurmudgeons will solve them in the most efficient manner because, as everyone knows, the Kurmudgeons are always concerned about costs.

We have had to delay the Initial Public Offering (IPO) of our Kuryo-coin. So many bad actors have been getting into the bit-coin business that it has become very difficult for a group like the Kurmudgeons, with our impeccable credentials, to rise above the miscreants who are dispensing so much disinformation. We will wait a bit for the market to separate the wheat from the chaff, at which point we will come forward with our IPO. In the meantime, this provides a time for individuals to get in on the ground floor of this investment. It continues to confuse us as to why the MBYC Investment Committee shows no interest.

It has been suggested by many of our readers that there should be an avenue for ordinary MBYC members to access the vast knowledge of the Kurmudgeons. To that end, the Kurmudgeons are considering adding an advice column to our Kurmudgeon Korner. We feel that we, because of our experience, have a lot to offer in this respect.

We Kurmudgeons are very happy that the Commodore took time in his address to the MBYC Opening Day audience to address the problems that we have in getting the special facilities that we so richly deserve. We sincerely hope that action follows the words. It is getting rather frustrating to have to be parking with ordinary people.

Larry Salas -- President of the Kurmudgeon Debating Society-- -- Duly recorded by Don Lockwood.
Recording Secretary and leader of the Kurmudgeon A Capella marching band.

A ship filled with sequins now heads to our dock, the Kurmudgeons have said, and so they MUST meet it, say, “Captain, reseal it at the Port of Shanghai instead.”

Ah - The Clubhouse "She Be Ship Shape And Ready To Sail"

Beautification Day – March 26, 2022 - Who ever didn't make it to Beautification Day at the Clubhouse missed a good time. It was not a chore, not a waste of time, not a grudging commitment but actually fun, and the friends of the clubhouse were having fun and there was actually singing and joking. We were finished by maybe noon and then the feast was presented. Yes, food galore and an abundance. Asian cuisine, Italian delights, and Americana cowhand style. We appreciate all your help and the place looks good for as of this writing: Opening Of The Racing Season, and of course

Judy Getting Married to Dave the following week..

Thank you again for all who helped... As for what is going on with upgrades to the building,

New Sliders are on order and will be installed starting June 7.

The Water Heater is failing and a new one is on order. Also the dungeon got a bit of remodeling and cleaning.

Security Camera on the exterior are installed and we have interior cameras that go on at 11 pm and off at 7 am and Came Security Company has the monitoring contract for the interior security which I will explain later.

All the tile and carpet has been professionally cleaned and sealed. Check out the tile in the bathrooms and showers.

Joe Huntsinger and I painted the lower deck and railings. He still is a good guy with a paint brush.

Note: if you notice any thief or pirates on the property, call me immediately because our cameras do loop. Me and "The Boyz" will respond.

A Foggy Notion

Whoosh Whoosh two cannon balls splintered me upper deck

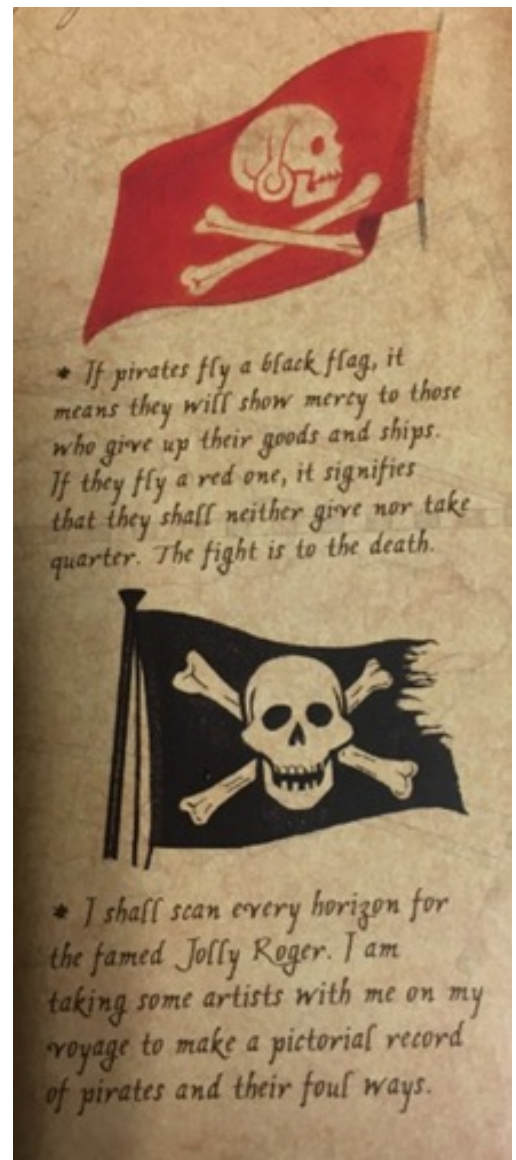

But Damned if we be shakin in our boots fer this bloody battle is not finished till we cheer with grog, hard tack and sushi from the entrails of our enemy. Hard to port, sheet in me main as tight as a drum and beat hard to weather fer me

next volly will scare
the nits in thar Rasta
beards to be hatchin

and run fer their ears. Kendall, as ye rememberin gots her garment caught in the main cleat and with a mighty tug it comes off makin her a dandy fashionable deckhand then rips the undergarment off and holds it up like a DaySailer Spinnaker and we be pickin up speed. AHR....Fog on the horizon and a wind line on the edge is a blessing that we can use and off we go, powering up then out of sight of the scoundrels that be chase us. It's getting darker now, and we hear the sound of waves crashing on rocks within fog. Then the fog lifts and a safe anchorage just a head where we shall set me hook, crack a keg of grog, lick our wound and enjoy dried sardines and hard tack. Drink, Drink, Drink, Drink - AHR...Sshhh - Matey's I be hearin somethin on thar yonder shore and its a rufflin me feathers.... Sshhh - what the! No, It Can't Be....

Rear Commodore

Charlie Roberts

As the Rear Commodore, one of my tasks is to report our fleets' activities in our monthly newsletter, the Masthead. I failed to secure a Bay Fleet Captain, so I will also report a little more on the Bay Fleet. One of the options we have to see our fleets' activities is to go to our website. Major sailing events are posted and linked on the home page, and you can link to the different fleet race result spreadsheets by selecting Fleets on the main horizontal menu. I encourage you to try that.

Bay Fleet Activities Spring II Series

The winds were a bit chaotic with both off shore winds and gusts from the north, but it was a good race. Simon Graves was the PRO and demonstrated that PROing a race can take a very small crew.

The Opening Day Bay Race is an arbitrary race, so any sailboat can participate; however, only DaySailers turned up, so the scoring was like a standard series race. We held the race the day before opening day because the Ocean Fleet was at the dock for Opening Day. Charlie Nicols PROed the Opening Day Bay Race and had a substantial crew that included Chuck Losness and Paul Brylewski on the safety boat, and Calypso and Jesse Ferris helping out on deck.

Boat Measurement Day - Getting Ready for the Big Regattas

I am giving a special thanks to Brooks and Michael Measures, Gale Condon, Todd Hansen, Charlie Nichols, and Chris Surfleet for supporting our Bay Fleet's Boat Measurement Day. Michael, a nationally certified measuring guy, taught us all many aspects about what it takes to certify a DaySailer for racing as we went over the measurements needed and how to take them. We do a Measurements Day every three or four years to make sure our fleet's boats can be certified for sanctioned races. This year the fleet can easily participate in a couple of sanctioned events. First is the annual High Sierra Regatta in which several of our members participate, and this year the 2022 Day Sailer North American Championship Regatta, to be held July 26th through the 31st in Eugene, Oregon.

Upcoming Bay Races

Saturday, May 7th, Spring III, Brett Cross PRO

Saturday, May 28th, DaySailer Championship, Glenda Boatman PRO

Sunday, May 29th, Laser Championship, Greg Miller PRO
Monday, May 30th, Jack Johnson (Jrs),

it was meant to be PROed, which means a two day event, including camping at Santa Margarita. The date assigned for the race was not going to work for the event Kevin had planned. Consequently, we are working on coming up with a new date. In addition I will be sending out a survey via the Troll, but it will be concerning the interest in the Wysocki as a two day camping event. Watch for that if you are interested.

Ocean Fleet Events

We have had several Ocean Fleet Events. I will count on our Fleet Captains, Jon Hovdal-Ocean Fleet, and John Krossa - SC27 Fleet to report on their fleet events; however, I will post the results for the Founder's Cup and Opening Day. Jon Hovdal postponed Spring I due to weather.

Floating along

FunFloat report Charlie Roberts

Like all of our other events on the bay, one can't predict what the weather for a FunFloat is going to be, even with a weather report. We had our FunFloat a day earlier than originally scheduled to accommodate another event at the club. For Funfloaters that was fortunate, because it did rain on the scheduled date, and the weather was nearly premium for our float. This time we went to the mouth of the bay instead of going into the bay, and then we ate lunch at Sandal's cove. It was a small group, but we had a good time, and there were a lot of shore birds to observe.

Funfloats are for everyone. I encourage you to bring visiting family and friends on a Funfloat. On our last Funfloat the Wrights brought two of their grandchildren, and we all enjoyed having them along. Funfloats provide us with an easy way to share our love of the bay and the area with our friends. We paddle with the tide, so these are not strenuous events. They only take a couple of hours. We take a long break halfway through to eat lunch, chat, enjoy the bay, and wait for the tide to change before we paddle back to the dock. The event provides us with exercise and a good social event, so why don't you plan on attending our next event.

Upcoming Events

May 5th - Cinco de Mayo Funfloat Party

We seem to have some annual events, and the Cinco de Mayo Funfloat Party is one of those. We don't paddle far, just across the bay to Sandal's Cove. We set up a table, and everyone brings all kinds of party treats to share. It's kind of a lunch but really more of a party. We dress up, we play games, and we have a good time. I will take over a whaler in order to get the table, coolers, and food to the sandspit. If you want a ride instead of paddling, we can do that, but be prepared to get your feet wet. Why don't you plan on attending our Cinco de Mayo Funfloat?

May 15th and May 29th are both Sundays and dates for the May Funfloats. On the 29th a Laser Championship will take place, but we should easily be able to work around each other. Remember, we try to leave the dock by 11 am, so please show up early enough to leave on time. If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to send me an email - chasmoes@gmail.com

Opening Day and Winemaker's Dinner, from the galley and Kendall Welch

Opening Day, April 10, 2022 was an amazing successful event. Everyone looked so nice, dressed up for the event, and the weather cooperated! This year the band, the Duotones with Johnny Johnson and Ted Waterhouse, were set up near the hoist, and the podium was placed in front of the band. We set up tables and chairs on the tarmac as well as on the upper deck. All of the attendees enjoyed the ceremony on the tarmac because of the extra space making it easier for everyone to see and hear the speakers.

The galley again packed box lunches which of course included the hand-painted cookies.

The Winemakers Dinner on Wednesday, April 20, featured wines from Soaring Hawk Vineyard paired with food prepared by your own galley slave, Kendall Welch, and Jill Fariss co-owner of Soaring Hawk. The wine was served by none other than Joey bag of donuts, Joe Fariss. Thank goodness for the wonderful volunteers, John Wiegold, Lori Toft, Jackie, Betina, Robin, Dave Hensinger and more, that helped us prepare the meal, serve the wine and food, and clean up. It was quite a challenge but we succeeded. The yacht club never looked better, with tablecloths, flowers, real silverware, and regular wine glasses!!! It sure didn't look like our normal Happy Hour crowd.

Soaring Hawk's Viognier was served with a white bean soup with crispy capers and herbed olive oil. Their Entwined was served with a roasted beet and goat cheese salad with an olallie berry vinaigrette. The Syrah was served with a Roasted Pork Tenderloin on a bed of potato puree with a reduction sauce with Syrah and olallieberry vinegar. The "piece de resistance" was Soaring Hawk's Zinfandel paired with an olallieberry mousse with a chocolate shortbread crumble and a lacy oatmeal cookie.

MBYC New Crew

New members of the yacht club include Sally and Ingmar Lauringson, sponsored by Jon Hovdal and Charlie Nichols. Gay Caldwell, sponsored by Troy Wiech and Lynn Meissen, is also a new member.

The Membership Committee will next be recommending membership for Susan Dever, sponsored by Carolyn Pye and Jeanie and Charlie Roberts. Susan has been regularly joining in on fun floats and happy hours at the club.

Scheduled prospective member interviews include Richard and Susan Schermerhorn, sponsored by Bill and Nancy Albrecht and Roger Marlin, and Aaron Young sponsored by Paul Irving and Judy Glover Sheesley. All candidates are active sailors and boat owners and have participated in MBYC activities. --Laurie Wright, MBYC Membership Chair

Hamburger nights are great fun and the perfect opportunity to meet more members and get involved. I know choosing the hosts is more voluntold than volunteered, but that's how I get my crew. Hosts are welcome to plan a “theme night” and put their own spin on Hamburger Night, making it more fun and interesting for everyone. Last year we did Fish Tacos, Chicken Parmesan Sandwiches, BBQ Chicken, and Ribs, but everyone loves a hamburger. We will again ask for reservations, but that doesn't mean you can't just show up and get dinner as we will make 10% over our reservations.
